December Worship and Sunday School Time: (December 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th and 31st)

9:30 a.m. Sunday School
10:40 a.m. All-Church Worship in the Sanctuary
(regular worship times will return January 7, 2018)

We invite you to join us on Sunday, December 3rd at 10:40 a.m. for a combined Hanging of the Greens service and special presentation of the Gospel through song and drama in The Greatest Gift. This first Sunday of Advent we will center our hearts, minds, and spirits on the manger and remember the reason we celebrate, the greatest gift of all, the gift of Jesus Christ given to the world.

Books for Bean Elementary Wrapping Party!

Join us Sunday, December 3rd from 3-5 p.m. in Kuykendall Hall for a book wrapping party, with light refreshments to follow. All materials for wrapping will be available.

Children's Christmas Program

The Child Development Center Christmas Program will take place on December 15th at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. The children of FCC will also be joining them to sing and worship that evening. Afterwards we will all gather in Kuykendall Hall for cookies, punch, and a visit from a VERY special guest. Please come to support these children and spread the love of Christ this Advent season.

Christmas Eve Service Times

In a world that is constantly changing and drifting down uncertain paths, it's nice to know that some things remain consistent. We welcome you this Christmas season. Christmas is a good time to come home!

- ★ 10:40 a.m. Sunday Morning All-Church Worship with guest minister, Rev. Dr. Andy Mangum in the Sanctuary
- ★ 4:00 p.m. Christmas Eve Candlelight Service in the Sanctuary
- ★ 4:45-6:00 p.m. Communion in the Chapel
- ★ 6:00 p.m. Christmas Eve Candlelight Service in the Sanctuary

A Message From Rev. Carpenter

This fall we strove to set a new normal at FCC. We are already seeing the fruits of this endeavor. After printing cards and ordering countless more, many of you have invited friends and strangers to join us for worship. The cards read “We celebrate the Gospel!” and include the basic information for our church. Pick up as many cards as you need in the church office.

We’ve seen an immediate increase of first time visitors, including many younger families, single people, churchy people, and people who never thought they’d find themselves at a church. Several folk’s lives are potentially changed and enhanced because you stepped out and invited them to the Table of Jesus Christ and to a Gospel-centered fellowship. Thank you!

On Sunday, December 10th during the Sunday School hour (9:30 a.m.), I will be hosting a Church Membership Class in Kuykendall Hall. This is a chance for our new friends and guests to consider officially uniting with FCC to join the mission of our church: to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to mature and disciple the nations.

Each year we’re reminded that Christmas is a good time to come home. With this in mind keep inviting your friends. Perhaps you’re reading this as a person who is ready to get back involved in your church home. We desire to include and receive anyone that the Lord is calling and sending into the fold.

Something to remember during this season is the change to our worship schedule. For the entire month of December we will worship at 10:40 a.m. in the sanctuary. Adjustments can be a challenge, but I believe this one is worth it! As you invite friends make sure they know this change. Spread the word to your friends who are members too so that no one is left in the dark. Sunday School is at 9:30 and the coffee shop will remain open and active throughout the morning. Our Elder-hosted prayer time will be at 8:30; this is open for anyone who would like to join us for non-instrumental singing, a scripture lesson by an elder, and a time to pray for revival and strength in and through FCC.

On December 3rd at 10:40 a.m. we will hold the traditional Hanging of the Greens and a new Gospel-presentation called “The Greatest Gift.” The Christmas season culminates on Christmas Eve with our special guest, regional minister, Rev. Dr. Andy Mangum at 10:40 a.m. in the sanctuary. Candlelight services will be held in the sanctuary at 4:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. with communion offered in the chapel in between.

Thank you for being so active to invite folks to join us. The saying is true, “Not one of us is stronger than all of us.” May God bless and further activate our church during this Advent season!

In Christian love,
Pastor Paul

Beans... and Much More

Have you ever wondered about the story behind the “Disciples Beans” that are part of our beans and poinsettia donations each Christmas? The beans are sent to Southwest Good Samaritan Ministries (SWGSM), a ministry that serves legal refugees, orphans, the poor, and other special causes in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas and adjacent areas of Mexico. FCC has supported SWGSM financially for over 30 years, and has sent a number of mission teams to the Valley.

Some years ago the Coastal Bend Area churches recognized the hunger needs in the Valley and began sending Disciples rice, grown in that area, to SWGSM. Rev. Ernie Williams from FCC Lubbock was the SWGSM moderator, and felt that the Hi Plains Area could supply local pinto beans. Through the years, Disciples rice and beans became a major food resource for many people.

In the last year, your gifts of Disciples beans have fed refugees from many countries, including a large group of Cubans trapped in camps in Mexico by changing US immigration policies. They have also served over 60 children in an orphanage, a community of poor people living on a roughly reclaimed landfill in Matamoros, and many poor parishioners of Hispanic Disciples churches in the Valley. Over $12,000 of rice and beans were distributed, but the needs are still greater than the supply.

You can make a difference with your gift of Disciples beans during our Christmas beans and poinsettia drive. Donations can be made in honor or in memory of friends and family. You will provide a gift of simple food to those who truly know hunger. See the information below and Lyn Williams or Dave Bender for more details.

Poinsettias & Disciples Beans Orders

Poinsettias will be on display in our Sanctuary as memorials to loved ones and expressions of appreciation to family and friends. There is also an opportunity for outreach through the “Disciples Beans Project,” providing food to those in need in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

The firm deadline for orders is Monday, December 18th, at noon. Make checks payable to “First Christian Church” and note “poinsettias and/or beans” in the memo section. Turn in order forms and payment to the church office or place in the offering plate during worship. Net proceeds from poinsettia sales will be used for local outreach. Orders cannot be received without payment.

Members will deliver poinsettias to our homebound/hospitalized members & friends after the last Christmas Eve Service.

The Gift of Joy

On Christmas Eve, First Christian Church Lubbock has the opportunity to bring joy into the lives of the residents of Juliette Fowler Communities. The Christian Church Disciples of Christ has faithfully supported Fowler Communities for 125 years making certain that the men, women and children receive daily compassionate care. At our Christmas Eve service, you will have the opportunity to again give the gift of joy to the residents of Fowler. Please prayerfully consider making a difference with your offering.

Tillie Pierce Alleman was a 15 year old school girl in Gettysburg, PA in 1863. When she heard the frightening news that the Confederate Army was approaching, she was sent home from class only to witness the fearful events of the Battle of Gettysburg as recorded in her 1888 novel.

Join us on Friday, January 5th at 10:30am, in Kuykendall Hall as Tillie recalls and shares her experiences with us! You won't want to miss this! Afterwards, we will enjoy a delicious catered lunch for $10.00/person. Please RSVP on the sign-up sheet in the Great Hall or call the church office at 763-1995 no later than Wednesday, January 3rd.

The Thrill of Hope . . . Marilyn Wragg

“A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices, for yonder dawns a new and glorious morn”—these words from “O Holy Night” express the sense of hope that characterizes the season of Advent. So, just what is this “thrill of hope”?

I have a friend who has been praying for some time over difficult circumstances, which have not perceptibly improved in spite of persistent prayers and trust that God will guide and provide. My friend recently asked, “What does it mean to hope in God, if that hope is not tied to hoping for a specific thing?”

Reflecting on these two questions, it seems there is both a worldly and a Christian perspective on hope. In worldly terms, hope is the desire for a certain thing to happen and generally includes a measure of wishful thinking. We often engage in this kind of hope and thus tie it to prayers for specific outcomes. It is good and natural to ask our Heavenly Father for specifics, and it is human nature to hope in this manner.

But this is not the kind of hope of which psalmists and prophets write in Scripture. They refer time and time again to hoping “in the Lord” and “in His word.” Like Abraham, who “against all hope, in hope believed” (Romans 4:18), this kind of hope is rooted in the character and the promises of God.

This hope is the hope of the Christian; it is hope in God and in His word. It far surpasses wishful thinking. It is not hope in specific earthly outcomes, however urgent those outcomes may seem. It is rather the confident expectation that what God has promised, God will accomplish. It is the hope of salvation and of eternal life; it is the hope of Jesus’ appearing and the hope of the glory of God. This constitutes the “thrill of hope.”

May we focus this season on asking God to fill us with this kind of hope. There is no better way to ask than to pray Romans 15:13 back to God: “God of hope, please fill me with all joy and peace as I trust in You, so I may overflow with hope through the power of Your Holy Spirit.” God, renew in each of us this Advent season, through our Lord Jesus, the thrill of hope.

Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles... Isaiah 40:31a

Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord. Psalms 31:24

You are my refuge and my shield; I have put my hope in Your word. Psalms 119:114

Let us put on... the hope of salvation as a helmet.

1 Thessalonians 5:8b

...in the hope of eternal life, which God, Who does not lie, promised before the beginning of time. Titus 1:2

... while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:13

And we boast in the hope of the glory of God. Romans 5:2b

God Fathers!

God fathers is a monthly time for Christian men to remember the Gospel as it concerns our marriage and our parenting. Join us on the first Friday of each month at 6:00 a.m. Our next gathering will be Friday, December 1st. We will meet at Cast Iron Grill located at 620 19th Street. Wake up, grab some coffee, and join us!!

Thank you...

"In anticipation of going home sometime in December, I would like to sincerely thank the staff, Elders, Deacons, and everyone who visited, prayed, served communion, brought flowers, and any other kindness rendered. The cards were helpful also. All of it made the last three months bearable. I hope to be back with you soon. Sincerely, Bud Reeds"

"Hey Jonna and everyone at FCC- Thank you so much for all the help with Thanksgiving. You and your church are such a blessing to Lubbock and the Kingdom of God. I look forward to working with you on other projects. Again, many thanks. God Bless, Pastor Dean-Lubbock Dream Center"

Monterey HS commemorates its first touchdown, scored by Delman Hilton in 1955

It was more than 60 years ago when Delman Hilton made Monterey High School's first ever touchdown, in a game against El Paso High School in the fall of 1955. Delman was presented with a plaque from Monterey. "This was great. I never thought of anything like this, in my entire life. I don't deserve it, of course. There were 11 of us guys out there. I wasn't the only one," Hilton said. "You've got to remember that. Work together as a team, win as a team."

Jack Purkeypile, principal of Monterey High, got a call from Jerry Etter, a member of the class of 1956 who organizes class reunions and events for members of both Monterey and Lubbock High. The two classes of 1956 were originally both at Lubbock High but were split up when Monterey opened in 1955. They continue to hold joint reunions.

The Greatest Gift is December 3rd!
The children will be singing with the Sanctuary Choir and hanging Christmons on the tree during the service! The kids who are performing will need to be in the Sanctuary by 9:30am. The children have been practicing diligently every week so we hope to see you there for the service at 10:40am!

Wednesday December 6th is Parents' Night Out at 6:30!
This will be combined with the youth group and is free for all ages. We will be in the Family Life Community Center across from the church parking lot at the gym. The event is from 6:30-8:30pm. There will be dinner and games RSVP to Holly at holly@fclubbock.org!

The advent season is among us! I encourage you to stay joyful amongst all the stress of the holidays. Don't forget that Jesus is the reason for the season.

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise." Psalm 98:4 KJV

News From Noah's Nook!!

Our children's library, Noah's Nook, is a great resource for our FCC kids as well as for our CDC kids and teachers. Preschool CDC classes come in every Wednesday for story time and to check out books for their classrooms. And of course, there is wear and tear when books are read over and over again. And that's a good thing because it means they are being used! Currently we have over 150 books checked out!!

Last December we had a Happy Birthday Jesus celebration each Sunday in which Sunday School classes, ages 3 to 5th grade, brought a new book to give to the library. This year, we will again have our Christmas Tree in the library, and your child may bring a wrapped book ANY Sunday in December!! I hope your child will enjoy selecting a book, maybe a favorite of your family's, and giving to Noah's Nook as a Happy Birthday Jesus gift!

Welcome, Derek!

by Scott Hall

After a period of discernment, it has been made clear that Derek Jerezano has been called to serve under my leadership as a Youth Ministry Intern. I am looking forward to the church having a chance to meet Derek, but until then, here are some quick facts about Derek:

1. Full name:
Derek Jose Jerezano
2. Where are you from?
Amarillo TX

3. Hobbies

Guitar playing, longboarding, hiking, music connoisseur

4. Special Skills

Cooking, cleaning, CPR. I can do the splits, I can fit an entire apple in my mouth.

5. How did you become a Christian?

I became a Christian through the influence of my youth minister pouring into my life during a time where I was unlovable and spiritually downcast. He walked with me and showed me what Christianity was all about.

6. What is the Gospel?

The Gospel to me is knowing that God is the greatest good in the world and knowing that He will come back to overcome the darkness in the world, and by knowing that, we choose to follow Him and share that with the world to help overcome that darkness and more importantly share His goodness

Derek will be working with our youth ministry in two primary ways:

1. Relationally. Derek has been called to help push numbers and make disciples. We plan on getting more involved with our students at their schools in helping them speak the Gospel to their peers.
2. Administratively. Derek will help teach classes, plan events, and carry out administrative duties for our youth ministry.

I am excited to see what the Lord is doing in our church. We are in a season of action and it is time to take hold of our calling as the church to "make disciples." I am excited to see how the Lord will use Derek to help advance His Kingdom for His glory. May the Lord bless and keep us all.

Hearing from God

God is constantly speaking to us. Too often we miss out on hearing God’s messages because we seek His guidance only occasionally, usually when we go through a crisis or face a major decision. With a dire need to hear from God, people become confused and frustrated when they don’t clearly hear what they should do. They begin to wonder how to hear from God and why they aren’t.

It doesn’t have to be this way. God wants you to hear His messages clearly. The key is to forget about gimmicks and signs and focus instead on developing a strong relationship with God who will empower you to hear from Him. The closer you get to God, the more you can enjoy Him by both listening and hearing from Him. God will begin to transform you and you will no longer trust in your abilities but in His .

There is not a more beautiful time of year then the Season of Advent to begin building a strong and beautiful relationship with the Lord.

So enjoy this time of year with the Lord and “trust in God’s ability to speak, not in your ability to hear.”

Join me Sunday morning at 10:15 a.m. in room 208

The King is coming. Jesus Christ has come and will come again. This is the hope of the Church whom He purchased with His blood. It is the eager expectation and desire of His people. His coming is our joy, for He is our treasure, our greatest good.

Come GROW with us!
