A Message From Rev. Carpenter

Greetings in the name of Jesus our Lord! I'm writing to highlight the pulse of our church and a few updates on God's work through FCC. I pause each morning for prayer and gratitude for all of the individuals and families that make up our congregation. Thank you for sharing your life and faith with each other!

★ We welcome and celebrate adding our new Minister of Pastoral Care, Rev. Arlano Funderburk. Arlano spent the past four decades in campus ministry at South Plains College for the Baptist Student Ministries. His roots are in the Southern Baptist Church, he has a continued ministry in Juarez, Mexico, and has a great love for the culture and care at First Christian Church. Arlano will be focusing on our seniors ministries to begin (Keenagers, Silver Stars, Homebound members), and will also add ministries to include adult retreats. Please join me in welcoming Arlano to our staff and pastoral team!

★ Our church year begins July 1 and the transition has begun. Our outgoing chairmen have led well and are prepared to hand off the baton to incoming leadership. After meeting with our incoming Elder Chair, Linda Greenstreet, and Board Chair, Mike Cunningham, the ministry focus for 2018-2019 will include "touching others," "persevering and staying the course with hope," and "stepping up to lead." As we enter another year, our staff and elders are committed to maintaining and improving our pastoral care. Each of us plays a role in the welcome and embrace of FCC. Thank you for being a pastor to those around you and for looking out for the good of your brothers and sisters in Christ. If you are aware of someone in need of encouragement or assistance, go for it! Reach out yourself, and/or call the church. Remember, no one walks alone at FCC.

★ Our mission to invest in college students will take new steps this year as well. Remember the goal is to seek unique relationships with Tech/Lubbock Christian/South Plains/Wayland students to carry out the Great Commission: To invest in others, discipling the next generation. Many of you signed up to help in various ways. We will contact you soon with dates and opportunities to join in this mission. Remember, that even though we are called to serve, we must be filled ourselves first. I urge our church to remember the Gospel and foster a strong relationship with Jesus. Our greatest strength is our connection to God through Jesus in the Holy Spirit.

★ Psalm 145 is heavy on my heart for this year. I pray it daily in our sanctuary using our altar Bible. I believe it is powerful and full of promises for FCC. If you're needing help from God and a Word to believe in, enjoy Psalm 145.

"The Lord is righteous in all His ways and loving toward all He has made. The Lord is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth."

— Psalm 145:17-18

Trust and Give Thanks . . . Marilyn Wragg

Going into 2018, I suggested adopting the watchwords trust and entrust. Trust means actively placing our faith in God; entrust, releasing into God's care those people and things we care about. As I find myself daily tempted to worry and be anxious, it is already time for me to recommit to those action words of faith.

We are told in Philippians 4:6 not to be anxious about anything, but rather to present our requests to God in prayer, with thanksgiving. The steps listed are offered as a pattern for reaffirming trust and thanks any time anxiety attacks. I employ them often.

An example prayer from recent news is: "God, I am anxious about the world situation, especially the awful news about Syria and tensions with Russia. I trust You God, but I need Your help to trust and not be afraid. I praise You that You are Sovereign over all. You know the end from the beginning, and Your purpose will stand. Help me truly grasp and internalize these truths. Thank You for the many ways You have blessed the USA thus far and the protection You have provided so many times. May we continue to trust and thank You."

- Tell God what is on your heart, and then state your trust in Him.
"God, I am so anxious about __, because __. But God, I trust You."
"God, I am worried about __, because __. I know you love him; I entrust her to Your care."
- Ask God to help you trust in Him.
"I do trust You, God. Please help me trust You more."
- Praise God that He is trustworthy and Sovereign. Pray to grasp and believe it.
"I praise You God that You are Sovereign over all things! You have proven your trustworthiness again and again. Please help me grasp and believe that."
- Thank God for blessings in your life—especially blessings related to things that cause you to worry or be anxious.

News From Noah's Nook Children's Library

Whoever donated 2 huge boxes of books to our Children's Library, THANK YOU!!! They are awesome books and in such good condition! We are anxious to get them catalogued and get them ready to check out. Sunday School classes check out books once a month. But did you know that our CDC teachers check out books each Wednesday for their 3 and 4 year old classes? They are so grateful for our library. So if you have some extra children's books around your house, or shop garage sales and see some awesome finds, don't forget our FCC Noah's Nook! — Claire

SUMMER KICK-OFF

Sunday, May 27th

4-6pm

10808 Norwood Ave

Join us for pizza and swimming to get this Summer started!

RSVP to Holly at Holly@fcclubbock.org

Grace and peace to you. We are called by Jesus to the Great Commission in Matthew 28. "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit...". What a blessing it is to see God at work reaching out to people all over the world through His ministries at First Christian Church.

Over Spring Break, 4 of us, 2 college students, myself and my son, departed from Lubbock to meet up with a group of 10 other people from around Texas and begin this missions journey together. We traveled to Puerto Rico to fulfill the mission calling that He put on our heart not knowing what to expect. Once we arrived in Puerto Rico we were greeted and housed by the YWAM group in San Juan. YWAM is an evangelical interdenominational, non-profit Christian, missionary organization that our church had the pleasure of hosting in November of 2017 when they came to Lubbock to do mission work. I immediately became close in relationship with this group. This relationship has flourished and continues to grow as we partner with them to do mission work locally, nationally, and internationally.

The majority of our trip was spent in the mountains in a community called Cortizol. This community is so far up in the mountains that FEMA was unable to get to the people and the community. Many of the houses are still in ruins and the people are living in refuge camps or camping out wherever they can find temporary housing.

On this trip we focused on hurricane relief efforts and more specifically we went to help a man by the name of Julio Ortiz. Julio has had a tough go at life, losing his wife and then shortly after developed tongue cancer. The doctors tried everything to save his tongue but there was nothing they could do so he has lost his tongue and the ability to communicate with others. He works 12 hour days plowing a field next to his home where he grows vegetables and fruits and this has been his form of income. However, since the hurricane came it destroyed his home and his land leaving him with little ways to provide for himself.

God put together this crazy team from all over Texas, with different skill sets, and different life experiences to build this house. We met some obstacles along the way. Of course lumber is hard to come by in a nation that was totally destroyed by hurricanes and we had to go to five different cities and 8 different lumber yards in 3 days to find all the materials needed to build his home. Supplies are also very highly priced in Puerto Rico because of demand, so the price of this trip was very high. Because of your giving and praying we were able to build Mr. Julio a home, as well as, clear out debris from his land so he could begin preparing for crop growth.

It took us four long days to complete his home. Upon completing his home we saw the most emotion out of Mr. Julio then we had seen this entire trip. He was teary eyed, and giving us hugs and posing for pictures which had been rare for him to do this entire trip. When we finally were packing up to leave we saw him unloading the shed that he had been living in and moving into his new home with belongings that had been salvaged by the hurricane.

We were unaware of the beliefs that Mr. Julio had. This man who was distant from the beginning of our arrival, wondering and questioning why people from Texas would come and help him with his home became a man who, when we left, told us that he was seeking a relationship with Jesus. I'm sure there are many questions that Mr. Julio had but one that he continued to ask was, what was our motivation for being here? It was a perfect opportunity for us to say, "We love Jesus and that allows us to love you. That is why we are doing this." So despite not quite being able to articulate his words and tell us what his relationship with Christ is, he did say that he is pursuing a relationship. We can only pray that future trips that we make to Puerto Rico we are able to meet with him and see that he is on fire for the Lord and begins to share his own testimonies.

We appreciate you partnering with us and sending us. If it wasn't for you this trip would not have happened and this house would not have been built. A dream and desire that was placed on our hearts would not have been fulfilled without your prayers and financial help. Julio was one life out of many that was impacted on this trip and we are so blessed and grateful to have had you partner with us.

"I know your works. Behold I have set before you an open door which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name."
~Revelation 3:8
