As this season began in March we remembered that difficult times forge character and allows the light to shine the brightest. These months have seen real challenges. Our nation isn't just experiencing the pandemic, but also economic turmoil and civil unrest. Each day there seems to be a new phase of this complicated year. For the people who are unable to "live by faith and not by sight," 2020 would be unbearable. We, however, are people of faith. Though we might be hurt, or tired, or anxious, we carry on each day in light of the truth of God's Word.

By faith we know that nothing surprises God. By faith we remember that our lives are not accidents, but that He is equipping us to shine. By faith we profess that the end is the best part, and we walk in that hope. By faith we turn to scripture as our source of inspiration and direction.

God's church, and all His children by faith, are to be "in the world but not of the world." Romans 14:7-8 teaches, "For none of us lives to himself alone and none of us dies to himself alone. If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord." We are God's special property – His sheep, His instruments, His holy people. God's love and hand are upon us to bear light and grace in the darkened world. So shine!

The world is cruel, chaotic, divisive, unrighteous, and unjust. The Kingdom of God is gracious, God-governed, whole, holy, and fair. We are ambassadors to this Kingdom of God, though we are treated as foreigners. Let's all do our part to stay "prayed-up." Let's take time in scripture to see how we measure up and how God is calling us to be reflectors of His light. For personal study, I'm currently working through Romans chapters 12-15. St. Paul offers such encouraging words – go see what he says. Let's call and check on each other, seeking each other's welfare.

We are on the side of victory. The light wins. The darkness flees. Let us make the most of our lives, of every day, of each opportunity. The final verse of the great hymn Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee proclaims:

*Mortals, join the happy chorus;
Stars of morning, take your part;
Love divine is reigning o'er us,
Binding those of tender heart.
Ever singing, move we onward,
Victors in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us sunward
In the triumph song of life.*

Grace and Peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Pastor Paul

4 WAYS TO stay thankful IN TOUGH TIMES

1. RECOGNIZE THAT GRATITUDE DOESN'T CHANGE YOUR EXPERIENCE; GRATITUDE CHANGES YOUR PERCEPTION OF YOUR EXPERIENCE.
2. REMEMBER THAT GRATITUDE ISN'T A FEELING; IT'S A MUSCLE YOU CHOOSE TO EXPERIENCE.
3. FOCUS ON THE UNCHANGING CHARACTER OF GOD. NOT THE FRUSTRATING CIRCUMSTANCE.
4. TALK TO JESUS WHO CAN EMPATHIZE WITH YOUR PAIN AND FRUSTRATION.

Praying Through the Coronacrisis . . . Marilyn Wragg

It seems we have endless concerns over which to pray these days. I started a list on Good Friday, which I sometimes use as a guide when I take extended time to pray. I share in hopes that it may help you as well, especially as you personalize it to your own life and experiences.

Take My Life

1. Take my life, and let it be con-se-crast-ed, Lord, to thee.
2. Take my hands, and let them move at the im-pulse of thy love.
3. Take my voice, and let me sing; un-to God my praise I bring.
4. Take my sil-ver and my gold, not a mite would I with-hold;
5. Take my will, and make it thine; it shall be no lon-ger mine.
6. Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its trea-sure store.

1. Take my mo-ments and my days; let them flow in

6. all for thee, ev-er, on-ly, all for thee.

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus by Arlano Funderburk

We sing, “Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus” and yet how challenging to do what we sing. Keeping our eyes on Jesus, loving and trusting Him, is in fact, exactly what Jesus said was the most important thing we are called to do as Christians. The ancient singer of Israel expressed it like this, “I keep the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.” (Psalm 16:8) And yet, clearly, there are many things in our present circumstances that threaten to take our attention from Him.

Arlano Funderburk
Pastoral Care

No one would deny how difficult it is especially in the midst of the pandemic, economic, and racial crises we are currently experiencing. So the question becomes, how do I keep my eyes on Jesus, trusting and loving Him? Thank God He never asks us to do something without giving us the resources we need to do it (Philippians 2:13). For example, remember Peter wanting to walk on water? He started out well but took his eyes off Jesus and began to sink and Jesus helped him.

It is so important for us to keep our eyes on Jesus loving and trusting Him to help us not let the storms of our lives take our attention from Him. Peter learned, even in the worst of storms, Jesus was/provided all he needed. It is a lesson that is no less true for us today. Turn your eyes upon Jesus!

In the Life of the Church by Deborah Bigness

During the Covid-19 crisis this year, we have gathered for worship in our west parking lot. It has been an innovative and creative solution that allowed us to be together. Were you there in 2013 when we had church in the parking lot?

That summer, this pair of these festive cupcakes added to The Light's masthead announced a “Patriotic Celebration,” planned for the Sunday before July 4th – in our east parking lot! Only one service was held that Sunday, and 225 members of the congregation gathered that morning at tables and chairs to rejoice in our many blessings. Dr. David Mindel, our Transitional Minister at the time, led the worship. Care was taken to provide special, reserved parking for those with mobility issues and to take advantage of the shade in the area. Casual dress, along with caps and hats all in red, white, and blue, were encouraged! A celebration lunch followed our church service that Sunday – in the parking lot.
