“Do everything in love”

Corinthians 16:14

Reverend Paul Carpenter
Senior Minister
paul@fccclubbock.org

Each month I pray and ask God for guidance on what topic to address in this article. I'm full of thankfulness for you all. I love our church and I'm blessed each day by our members. The Apostle Paul writes: "I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." (Philippians 1:3-6)

Thank you for being so embracive and welcoming to my family. In 2014 we moved away from our family and met an even larger one! Our relationships at FCC are priceless and our world has changed because of your welcome and love. You all took a risk on a young preacher with only a few years in senior leadership; you put up with my Aggie-ness; you help me develop and grow as a preacher and pastor. Thank you. Our kids have a village, our marriage is surrounded by prayers, and we have become a part of the great community of Lubbock. We are right where God wants us and He has blessed us with a loving, faithful church family.

Thank you for being optimistic and faithful to the things God is doing. The "can-do" attitude at FCC is powerful. Our unity and willingness to press on in God's mission is nothing short of heaven's grace. I see our church's generosity year after year. I watch new people find welcome and grace the moment they meet our church family. Older leaders are honored and listened to, and new leaders are being raised up and prepared. As our past and heritage always has a seat at the table, we are taking steps each year to continue to be active, generous, and evangelistic. I see us baptize and receive new confessions of faith in Jesus, while also journeying alongside our saints as they enter heaven. From programs to people, I am grateful for our focused activity aligned with God's mission to have a people who love Him and love each other.

Thank you for exalting Christ Jesus. In the evolution of church-life in the USA we've seen some strange patterns. In a world of constant change, it's good to know that some things are consistent. The lordship of Jesus Christ is the church's true strength, and to confess Jesus as Lord is our great honor. Thank you for keeping Jesus at the heart of FCC and in our homes. Thank you for depending on the trustworthiness of scripture. Thank you for abiding in Jesus Christ and bearing the fruit of the Holy Spirit. The closer I've gotten to you all, the closer I've gotten to Jesus – and the nearer I draw to Jesus, the nearer I feel to you. This is the mystery of the communion of saints around the agreement the Jesus is Lord. Thank you for revering God. Thank you for desiring truth, and receiving and thinking through the wisdom of scripture. Thank you for joining me in daily joy-based repentance, being self-aware as Jesus grows us each moment by addition, by subtraction, and by transforming love. Thank you for growing in love for God and for your neighbor, filling the two greatest commandments. Jesus tells pastors, "feed my sheep." As an under-shepherd I feast along with you. God has preserved and grown our appetite for His Word, and has offered us holy food in the body and blood of Jesus and in the written Word of God. Thank you for wanting the things of God and for trusting me to serve under Christ.

I am a blessed man. Thank you!

Pray to Love Well . . . Marilyn Wragg

Is there someone in your life right now you desire more deeply to love? Or someone you perhaps find challenging to love?

My answer to both questions is, "Yes." As I have striven more deeply to love dear ones in both categories over the years, I too often have seen my strongest resolve and best efforts fall short. Sometimes it seems that the harder I try, the more frustrated I am by unloving feelings and reactions that spring up.

In light of Scripture, this battle should not be surprising. Loving well is not a natural ability in our sinful flesh. Rather, love is a fruit of the Spirit; love is, in fact, the first and primary fruit. What that tells us is that the only way to love when it doesn't flow naturally is by asking God—by praying for God, through His Spirit—to help us love well.

There are many Scriptures that can be adapted to motivate and guide us in praying to love well. My favorite is 1 Corinthians 13, so I am sharing an adaptation that I frequently pray.

The next time unloving thoughts and feelings emerge, do not resolve to work harder. Instead, pray harder. Pray to love well.

Loving God, through Your Spirit, please help me more deeply and genuinely to love (fill-in-name). Enable me to be patient and kind. Help me never envy, boast, or be proud. Keep me from showing dishonor or being self-seeking. Change my heart so that I am not easily angered, and take away any desire to keep a record of wrongs. May I never delight in evil, but rejoice with Your truth. Help me, Father, always protect, always trust, and always hope for you to work in _____'s life. Give me strength always to persevere in loving _____, even when it is hard or may not be reciprocated. You love me perfectly, God. Please enable me in turn to love _____ well.
~ Based on 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

THANK YOU

We wanted to extend our heartfelt gratitude for all the blessings we've received following the birth of our twins. Through the members of our beloved church, we were able to experience rich love and the provision of the Lord! Thank you to all who have helped us and most importantly, to those who lifted us up in prayer! We can't wait for you all to meet our sweet boys and are so grateful they have the opportunity to grow up in a church saturated in the Gospel!

Thank you!!

LOVING GOD (IN ORDER TO) LOVING THY NEIGHBOR

No greater command is there than to love the Lord our God with everything all our heart, soul, body, mind. As we seek to do so, naturally, we will inherit more of His heart and love for our neighbor. Thus the result of seeking nearness to God and learning to love Him with everything with have, is an outpouring of love to thy neighbor. But it is important never to mix the two up. I have heard people with great intentions mix these two commands up. I believe that these commands are meant to be sequential in nature (Doing the first results in accomplishing the next). During this month, may we have a deeper love for God and may that naturally result in us having a deeper love for thy neighbor.

Soli Deo Gloria!

Noah's Nook News...Claire Dulaney

A HUGE thank you goes to Pete and Susan Broome for donating more than 60 children's books to our library! They are catalogued and ready for check-out.

Our books are checked out on Sundays by our elementary age kids, on Wednesdays by our CDC teachers, and in the summer by our CDC school agers, so you can imagine that our books begin to show wear and tear! If you have books in good condition that our children could benefit from, please consider donating them. You may leave them in the church office! If our library can't use them, we donate them to Family Promise, Boys Ranch, or other agencies that could benefit.

Parents, have you seen any of our overdue Noah's Ark books at your house or in your car?? We check out books and DVDs for a month. Some items have been out for a year! We do not charge a fine. Just please be aware of any of our books or DVDs that your child is through with, that needs to be returned for others to enjoy. Thanks!

And thanks to Joy Gorsuch, Rachel Smith, and LouAnn Underwood for helping in Noah's Nook!

IN THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH...Deborah Bigness

After many years of meeting in homes, the courthouse, other church buildings – and even the jail, members of the First Christian Church officially dedicated their first church home on Sunday, February 6, 1910. The Lubbock Avalanche announced the planned construction in August 1908, noted that it would be the fourth church building in town, and predicted that, "It will be one of the nicest buildings in the city and will reflect much credit on the members of that denomination."

Built by contractors, Messrs Bruce and Garrett, the 40' x 50' building was on a concrete foundation and was projected to cost $1500-$1800 dollars. Pastor J.C. Welch, who had been called by the church the previous summer, with elders John R. McGee, W.D. Crump, and L.C. Robertson published a notice inviting the entire community to the dedication of "our meeting house," and invited all to "enjoy this happy occasion and also worship God in the beauty of Holiness."

A Moment With a Martyr

I would like you to meet my friend Polycarp, a bishop in the church of Smyrna. Polycarp was born in 69 AD and it was believed that he was even the disciple of the Apostle John. As Polycarp grew in age and wisdom and he also grew in faith and reputation, so much so that he began to be known as an elder and leader, further than the reach of his community. One of Polycarp's many notable affects on his community was that he would help convert those who were practicing the heretical religion of Gnosticism to Christianity. During Polycarp's ministry, primarily in the 2nd century, Christianity was viewed as truly counter cultural to a Greco-Roman lifestyle. (e.g. Christians wouldn't spectate bloody gladiatorial games, wouldn't practice infanticide "modern day abortion", were faithful in marriage, and wouldn't eat foods sacrificed to other gods) Tensions against Christians ran high especially due to refusal to proclaim "Caesar as Lord" and admittance with "Jesus as the rightful Lord and King". This began the persecution of Christians due to their blasphemous religion against Rome. Christians were brought to the stadium and told that if they did not "recant" they would be fed to wild beasts, burned, or killed. As Christians were being arrested, Aurelius noticed that they were willingly becoming martyrs over denying Christ "recanting". Aurelius noticed this trend within the Christians and questioned who was teaching them these behaviors. After finding out that it was none other than Polycarp, Aurelius ordered Polycarp to be arrested. Through a series of events Polycarp was seized and finally arrested, but not before Polycarp convinced his guards to provide him with an hour of prayer, which quickly became two hours. Once Polycarp arrived to the stadium, he was met with insult and slander until the "Proctor" arrived. The "Proctor" asked Polycarp to Recant, after a number of other pleads, to which Polycarp replied "86 years have I served Christ, And He has never done me any harm. How, then, could I blaspheme my King who saved Me?....I bless Thee for designing me worthy of this day and this hour that I may be among Thy martyrs and drink the cup of my Lord Jesus Christ." With this reply, it was motioned for Polycarp to be burned. The flames that weren't meant to consume him did not burn him or swallow him up and upon seeing this it was ordered that he be stabbed. As Polycarp side was punctured his blood put out the flames and there Polycarp's image would be etched into the memories of all the Christians watching as a sign of faith to our true Lord, Jesus Christ.

A Weekend Away

*First Christian Church
Adult Retreat
Community United Methodist Church
Ruidoso, New Mexico
April 24-25, 2020*

Rev. Dr. Bob Utley

Dr. Bob Utley has pastored several churches in Texas and is a prolific writer. Utley founded International Sunday School Lessons Inc. which would later become Bible Lessons International.

Bob taught for 16 years in the Religion Department at East Texas Baptist University. Currently he conducts Bible Conferences and Revivals in the U.S. and abroad.

Those who have heard Bob's teaching find it refreshing and inspiring. He approaches Bible teaching from a critical, verse-by-verse, historical-grammatical point of view. In addition, great effort is made to remove his social, cultural, experiential, and denominational biases. Bob tries to support his interpretation from the biblical text in one of six ways: (1) literary context; (2) historical setting of the biblical author; (3) word studies; (4) grammatical relationships; (5) parallel biblical passages; and (6) literary genres.

Get away from the busyness of life and the pressures of parenting and spend time in the presence of the Lord.

Join us, April 24th and 25th at Community United Methodist Church for worship, prayer and fellowship in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Dr. Bob Utley will host a series of workshops to help us move forward in our journey into Christ likeness.

You will have the opportunity to worship, rest, and explore beautiful Ruidoso.

Registration is $50 per person. Register on our website: www.fcclubbock.org or in the church office.

New Addition

Please help us welcome our newest team member, Lourdes Ariceaga. 'Lou' will serve as the new Director of Children's Ministry. As many of you know, our previous Children's Director, Holly Jessen is leaving the FCC Staff to work with the Children's Home of Lubbock.

Lou has lived in Lubbock for 12 years, is married to her husband Rodrigo and has 3 boys.

She earned her degree from UAC in Mexico. Lou previously served as the Children's Ministry Director for Community Bible Study in Lubbock and is a certified ESL teacher.

We are delighted to have Lou on our team. She is excited to help our children and parents grow closer to God.

Please be sure to say hi to Lou if you see her.
